GALLINA Receives Excellent Peer Review Report

Sacramento, CA -- March 1, 2007 – GALLINA LLP announced today that the California Peer Review Committee has accepted the peer review report from the firm's most recent review. The review was performed in 2006 and evaluated the quality control of firm's accounting and auditing practice in effect for the year ended June 30, 2006. GALLINA's next review will take place before December 31, 2009.

The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' (AICPA) Peer Review Program is dedicated to enhancing the quality of accounting, auditing and attestation services performed by its AICPA members. The AICPA Peer Review Program provides for firm-on-firm evaluations of the systems and work products of a public accounting practice. The standards and methodologies used are developed by the AICPA in the state of California are administered by the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.

GALLINA's partners have been proud members of the AICPA since the firm's inception and have voluntarily participated in the Peer Review Program since 1990.

For the last four reviews (since 1997), GALLINA has received an "unmodified report with no letter of comments", which is the highest opinion possible in a Peer Review. This excellent track record is rare for accounting firms. The firm's latest Peer Review Report can be found at: www.gallina.com.
